

Joyous Chaand Raat Celebrations

Chaand Raat calls for festive celebrations, and that's exactly what we did at Ropstam. As the Holy month of Ramzan came to an end, special arrangements were made to decorate the office with illuminating moons and stars representing the crescent moon. It was a particularly joyous occasion for our female colleagues, who dressed up in traditional attire and enjoyed the event with zeal, euphoria, and enthusiasm.

In our Lahore and Islamabad offices, special Eidi baskets were distributed among the female employees, to make their Eid festivities even more momentous and memorable.

Our female employees enjoyed the Chaand Raat evening wearing bangles and applying Mehndi on each other's hands. All in all, it was a remarkable event enjoyed by all the female team members.

Ropstam Eid Festivities

As the sweet aroma of Eid-ul-Fitr fills the air, Muslims worldwide rejoice in the joyous conclusion of Ramadan. At Ropstam Solutions, we don't just celebrate - we immerse ourselves in the true spirit of this auspicious occasion.

This year's Eid event was an embodiment of culture and unity as our diverse team came together to commemorate this special time. One of the highlights was the distribution of intricate bangles, a symbol of cultural heritage and diversity, to our female team members. The sparkle in their eyes as they received these gifts was a testament to the warmth and inclusivity of our Ropstam family.

But the celebrations didn't stop there. As Eid-ul-Fitr seems incomplete without Eidi, Ropstam management decided to give generous cash as Eidi, along with delectable sweet boxes filled with traditional Eid delicacies, which made everyone feel the love and appreciation at Ropstam.
